Admission to Abbcross Nursing Home

Abbcross Nursing Home cares for people with varying needs including:

- Older persons requiring Nursing care
- Older persons requiring Dementia care

Admission by referral via Social Services or self-referring prospective service users will undergo a needs assessment, prior to admission. You will also be invited to visit the home before being admitted. During this visit you will be able to look round the home and ask as many questions as you may have. This visit will also give an opportunity to discuss your care needs and whether the home can meet them. If you are unable to visit the home, a representative from Abbcross Home will arrange to visit you at your convenience.

We respect differences regarding race, culture, religion and sexuality. Although we may not be able to meet the requirements of all cultures and religions, we are willing to meet with you and discuss ways in which we may be able to accommodate your specific needs.

Finances

Prior to being admitted to Abbcross Nursing Home, your Social Worker will have asked you, or your representative, to complete a financial form. This will enable Social Services to assess the amount of accommodation charges that you will be required to pay which will be stated in your contract which will be issued by the funding authority.

Regardless of the amount that you are assessed to pay towards your accommodation, you will be allocated a certain amount for your personal allowance. This amount will increase each year, in line with increases to your state pension.

You may wish for a relative to deal with your finances on your behalf. Your relative will then arrange for you to receive your personal allowance.

As previously stated, these financial arrangements will be discussed with you by your Social Worker and the amount you are assessed to pay for accommodation charges will be put in writing to you by your Social Worker/funding authority.

If you are self-funding for your accommodation, you will be given details prior to admission full details of amount and method of payment.

Your accommodation charges cover your room, heat and light, 24-hour care and laundry.

Trial period

You have the right to a 'trial period' in the home. It provides an opportunity for you to come to a decision as to whether nursing/dementia care is the most appropriate option. It also affords the home the opportunity to see if their existing resources, and those that might be brought in additionally, are appropriate to meet your needs.

The decision will usually be taken at a review. It is vital that you and your representative have a clear understanding of what a review is for and when it will take place. Between four and six weeks after your admission a review will be held to determine whether you will live at the home on a permanent basis.

The Review will:

- Assess your needs and wants
 - Monitor progress
- See if the placement is in your best interest
- Find out if you wish to become a permanent resident
 - Plan for the future
- Determine any further action

The outcome of the review could be that you: -

- Remain as a permanent resident
 - Return home
 - Return to hospital
- Seek a more appropriate alternative placement
- Remain at Abbcross Nursing Home for an extended assessment period

Until a decision is made, it is essential that you do not give up your home whether owned or rented. If the trial period is extended there may be a need to negotiate with a hospital to keep a bed open or with the Benefits Agency over rent.

Decisions reached at reviews are clearly crucial to your future, and it is hoped that you will participate in the meeting, and with your permission your relatives/advocates will be included. The review meeting is essentially the end of the admission to residential care. Once the decision is made that you will remain permanently, the next phase of "settling in" can begin, and in which we hope you will come to regard ABBCROSS as your home.

Further reviews

Further formal reviews of your care needs will be held at annual intervals, or more frequently if circumstances dictate. The purpose of these reviews is: -

- To assess whether or not your needs have been correctly identified
- Establish whether your needs have been responded to or not
- Whether there are any further care needs to be considered

As with your first review these meetings should include you and any relatives or advocates you wish to be present.

What can I bring with me?

Your bedroom is fully furnished, but if you wish to bring in any furniture of your own, the staff will be happy to discuss this with you prior to your admission.

Unfortunately, in some circumstances we may be unable to accommodate additional furniture. This may be due to the fact that your mobility is restricted and therefore staff may need to use mechanical aids to assist you. If space is restricted due to additional furniture, this could result in a risk to you or the staff member assisting you. We will discuss this situation thoroughly with you prior to admission.

We encourage you to bring personal clothing (each item to be labelled), toiletries, photos, small ornaments etc.

Items of significant value should be passed to the management for safe keeping until a family member can collect them. The staff will attempt to provide security for a resident's possessions, but no responsibility can be accepted for items retained in the residents own room. All items of clothing should be marked with the resident's name; the home will make every effort to prevent damage to clothing.

Residents are required to seek insurance cover for valuable items.

Bedroom sizes

Bedrooms at Upminster Nursing Home vary in size from 14.8ft x 12.8ft to 15.9ft x 10.6ft. Measurements include the en-suite facility.

Your keyworker

On admission to a Abbcross Nursing Home you will be allocated a Care Worker who will be your Key worker.

A Key worker is an effective way to build closer relationships between residents and staff. You should be able to come to know and rely upon your Key worker as the main link to the rest of the care team with regard to your needs and wishes. The quality of the Key worker/resident relationship is crucial and your Key worker sees this as an important aspect of their work in getting to know you and ensuring that you have no concerns and receive the service you require.

Although your Key worker will not be on duty everyday they will assist you and encourage you to continue your links with families, friends, leisure pursuits and personal grooming (i.e. booking appointments with hairdresser, chiropodist, dentist etc.).

The Key worker system is a two-way partnership and we invite you to tell them of your likes, dislikes and any other concerns you may have. If you feel that you are unable to relate to your Key worker, please feel free to speak with the Homes Manager to request a change.

If you have little or no family support, a Key worker can act as an advocate on your behalf. However, in this situation we would also be looking to provide an independent befriending scheme or advocacy agency in addition to your Key worker.

Your care plan

You will have a Person Centred Care Plan that is outcome focused which covers your social, emotional and physical needs and wishes. The Care Plan enhances the fact that you are a unique individual with your own personality, likes and dislikes lifestyle, experiences and your own opinions. Within the care plan documentation it contains risk assessment and any risk management plan needed. Your Care Plan will be available to the care team to ensure they understand your needs and meet them in a consistent manner.

The Care Plan will be completed with your full involvement and where appropriate, will also include views/advice of your family, key worker, social worker and other interested parties who have been involved in your care. The care plans will require signing by yourself or your family member.

Your Care Plan will be reviewed on a monthly basis or sooner if the need arises. You will be invited to contribute to this process.

In-house reviews will be held on a quarterly basis, when you, your family and key worker will be able to discuss your care package and if you are satisfied with the care service.

Annual reviews are also held on an annual basis with yourself and your representative including your social worker as part of your Care Plan review.

We will always endeavour to uphold your rights to choice and self-determination. However, if your wishes pose a risk to either yourself, others or staff, i.e. use of hoist or equipment, we will undertake a risk assessment of the situation. If the level of risk is deemed to be too great we may have no choice but to infringe your rights. In such situations full records will be maintained.

Medical care

TREATMENT OF DISEASE, DISORDER OR INJURY:

Our registered nurses monitor the health care needs of all of our resident's, and work closely with other health care professionals to ensure that the health care needs of people are met. Our home can care for people who have illnesses such as Parkinson's disease, Cancer, Multiple Sclerosis, Strokes and Diabetes etc.

Meals

Our catering staff provides a full range of home cooked foods. The menus are displayed daily in the dining rooms. There is always a choice of dishes available. Times of meals will also be displayed.

The cooks will endeavour to provide for special diets. If your culture or religion governs that food must be prepared and cooked in a certain way, please discuss this with the Manager as part of the admission process, to ensure that we are able to meet your requirements. This will also be reflected within your personal care plan.

Snacks, tea and coffee are available at all times; please ask a member of staff if you require anything.

Regular catering surveys are carried out for residents as a group to make suggestions for changes to the menus for preferred foods. Our cooks receive the minutes of the resident's meetings in the home, and would welcome any comments or suggestions about the meals provided.

Visitors

The home has an open visiting policy. We do request however ask that if service users return home late, they respect other service users by keeping noise to a minimum.

Service users are free to see their visitors in their private rooms.

Visitors are encouraged and able to have a meal with service users for a nominal charge as laid down by Havering Care Homes Ltd. If a large number of visitors for one service user require meals on the same day 24 hours notice would be appreciated.

Home safety

Under the Health & Safety at work Act, Abbcross Nursing Homes has the responsibility to ensure your welfare at all times. For the safety of both residents and staff, regular fire drills are held. Smoke detectors are fitted in all rooms within the home. Fire notices are displayed around the home in line with fire department requirements, which give details of what to do in the event of fire. To comply with fire regulations all visitors to Abbcross Nursing Home are requested to sign in & out of the visitor's book on each visit.

Risk assessments are completed as and when required i.e. for buildings, fire, and moving and assisting etc.

Smoking

Under Government legislation, smoking is not allowed anywhere within the building. Smoking is only permitted in designated smoking areas outside of the building.

Leaving the home

You are free to come and go as you please, but we would ask that you let us know if you are going out, so that we do not worry about your whereabouts, or look for you unnecessarily in the case of a fire evacuation. We would also need to provide you with any medication you may be due whilst out of the home.

Please tell us if you expect to be out overnight, or do not require certain meals.

How can you help us?

We would like you to maintain your independence as much as you are able, by undertaking certain tasks for yourself, within the limits of your capabilities. These tasks could include laying the dining tables or putting your laundry away.

We would like you to join in the service users/relative's meetings, which are held quarterly; this is where you can put forward any ideas you may have. In fact, we would like you to have a say in everything that affects your life in this home. We would ask you to treat other service users and staff, as you would like to be treated.

How can relatives and friends help us?

We welcome your relatives/friends support in helping us to care for you. Whenever possible, we would like them to visit you regularly, take you out, escort you on hospital appointments, dental visits etc., and join in social functions within the home and maybe escort you for outside activities.
